

PRESS RELEASE

THE SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CENTER (SBDC) AT EDISON COMMUNITY COLLEGE TO OFFER PROGRAM ON INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS SUCCESSION PLANNING

PIQUA, OH—February 15, 2011— The Small Business Development Center (SBDC) at Edison Community College in partnership with the Miami County Chambers of Commerce (Covington, Piqua, Tipp and Troy), Grow Piqua Now, and the Business Succession Planning Program at Kent State University will offer a free seminar Introduction to Business Succession Planning.

This free event will take place on February 24, 2011 from 8AM to 11AM at the Fort Piqua Plaza Banquet and Conference Center, 308 N. Main Street in Downtown Piqua.

The presenter is Chris Cooper from the Business Succession Planning Program at Kent State University. Cooper will cover topics including: How and Where to Start; How Much is Your Company Worth; Legal Documents; Family Issues; and Inside and Outside Buyers.

Those interested in attending this event should contact the Piqua Area Chamber of Commerce at (937) 773-2765 or via e-mail at rsvp@piquaareachamber.com.

###